

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 23, 2007

Harvey L. Nachman, CTP, participated in a panel on “The Evolving Role of the Turnaround Professional” at a breakfast meeting sponsored by the Philadelphia chapter of the Turnaround Management Association on March 23, 2007 in Philadelphia, PA. The panel was moderated by The Honorable Kevin J. Carey, U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware and featured John Brignola of LBC Credit Partners, Inc. in Philadelphia, Randall Siegele of Chase Business Credit in Philadelphia, Claudia Springer, Esq. of ReedSmith in Philadelphia and J. Scott Victor of Nat-City Investments Special Situations Group in West Conshohocken. The program focused on the impact of liquidity on traditional workout situations, including bankruptcies, and the role of the professional in the current turnaround and restructuring environment.

NachmanHaysBrownstein, Inc. (NHB) is one of the country’s premier mid-market turnaround and crisis management firms, having been included among the “Outstanding Turnaround Firms” in Turnarounds & Workouts for the past twelve consecutive years.
