

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 24, 2010

NHB Advisors, Inc. (NHB) has been engaged as Financial and Asset Sale Advisor to the Debtor in Rubicor Medical, Inc., in its Chapter 11 proceeding in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware. Rubicor Medical Inc. is a medical device manufacturer having a principal place of business in Redwood City, California. It was incorporated in April 1998 and until late July 2008, was engaged in the development of breast biopsy products based largely on proprietary technology. The company was subject to an involuntary bankruptcy petition in July, 2009 which converted to a case under Chapter 11 in September, 2009. NHB is leading an asset sale process and advising the company regarding the marketing and sale of its intellectual property assets to the highest and best bidder.

The engagement is led by NHB Principal Ted Gavin, CTP, leader of the firm's Creditors Services Group, one of the nation's most active creditor committee advisory practices and Michael W. Savage, CTP, CIRA of NHB's Boston, MA office and an expert on asset sales. NHB Advisors, Inc.
