NARBERTH, Pennsylvania –NHB Advisors, Inc. (NHB), a leading turnaround and crisis management firm committed to creating value and preserving capital, announced today the election of Ted Gavin and Sarah Pugh to the Board of Directors of Women’s Campaign International.

Working in emerging democracies and post-conflict regions around the world, Women’s Campaign International (WCI) advances opportunities for women to actively participate in public advocacy, market and political processes. In providing the requisite skills, knowledge and culturally-sensitive support, WCI develops leaders who transform the lives of everyone they serve. Founded in 1998 by Member of Congress, Marjorie Margolies, WCI has implemented programs in more than 20 countries.

“Women’s Campaign International has recently focused on diversifying and expanding our board. We are pleased, happy, and proud to add Ted Gavin and Sarah Pugh to our board as great examples of that goal. We know that Ted and Sarah’s vision, expertise and energy will be valuable additions to our organization” said Marjorie Margolis, President and Founder of WCI.

Ted Gavin is a Principal with NHB and leads the firm’s Wilmington, Delaware office and NHB’s Bankruptcy and Fiduciary Services practices. Ted has worked with distressed companies for more than fifteen years, serving in advisory and management roles for troubled companies in diverse manufacturing, retail, service, transportation governmental and healthcare fields. “I am deeply honored to be chosen to serve on WCI’s Board and I look forward to working side by side with WCI’s Directors and professional staff for the advancement of an organization so successfully dedicated to the advancement of women in the global arena. I believe enhancing the voice and impact of women benefits us all; not only in the global economic and political community but also in the restructuring profession as a whole.” states Ted Gavin.

Sarah Pugh is a Director at NHB and part of its Fiduciary Services Group and Auto Dealer Services Group. Ms. Pugh has years of experience as a practicing attorney and provider of fiduciary services in bankruptcies and restructuring. “I am excited and thrilled to be a part of such an outstanding organization that supports and provides opportunities for women on an international basis,” said Sarah Pugh.

Women’s Campaign International is headquartered in Philadelphia, PA and operates field programs in Afghanistan, Azerbaijan, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Colombia, Ethiopia, Haiti, Liberia, Malawi, Namibia, Romania, Sri Lanka, and Tanzania, among others. In the United States, WCI operates the Global Awareness Leadership Series (GALS) program to broaden the horizons of young girls in Philadelphia by building their capacity to serve as community activists and competent global citizens – ultimately intending to roll the program out to other cities across the US. WCI is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that is entirely donation- and grant-supported.
